FIVE PRINCIPLES OF PARENTING

From Parenting Beyond Your Capacity
by Carey Nieuwhof and Reggie Joiner

Here's a few things we know will always be true about you as a parent:

You will get tired.
You will struggle with what you should do in a number of situations.
Your kids will not always behave exactly the way you want.
You will stay awake sometimes, worrying about them.
You will wonder, more than you should, if you're a good parent.

But we think there are five principles that will help you as a parent navigate through a variety of different seasons. And that if you begin to instill them into your parenting, your relationship with your children, and with the other people they need in their lives, will move in a better direction to parent beyond your own capacity.

We want to invite you to engage your family in a bigger story, a story that will expand their perspectives and reveal a significant role in this world. It's a story that involves more than just your family; it involves other influences who are on a journey to discover who God is and why a relationship with Him really matters.

We want to encourage you to establish a lifestyle as a parent where you ...

WIDEN THE CIRCLE

Invite others to invest in your children, so your sons and daughters have other voices that will help shape and determine the direction of their lives.

IMAGINE THE END

Focus your energy and effort on the issues that will make a lasting impact.

FIGHT FOR THE HEART

Create a culture of unconditional love in your home to fuel the emotional and moral health of your children.

CREATE A RHYTHM

Tap into the power of quality moments together, and build a sense of purpose through your everyday experiences.

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Allow your kids to see how you strive to grow so they can understand how to confront their own limitations and pursue character and faith.
